Thinking about a career in Aesthetics?

Please initial next to 1-12 and sign and date on the reverse.

_____1. Are you comfortable touching and being touched by others, including teachers and students while in the process of learning treatment techniques?

_____2. Our students learn treatments through practice on each other. Are you willing to receive services and temporarily grow out the hair on your legs, bikini area, arms and/or face to train in waxing techniques?

_____3. We hold our students to a very high standard. Pure Aesthetics requires students to maintain a cumulative GPA of 85% and cumulative attendance of 90%. Are you willing and able to arrive on time and ready to learn on a daily basis?

_____4. Learning about the products that we carry is an important part of the program at Pure Aesthetics. Are you willing to change your usual skin care regimen in order to try the products used in services and offered for retail sale?

_____5. Students working with clients on the clinic floor find that their schedule for the day can change quickly with cancellations, walk-ins, and client requests. Will you be able to adapt to rapidly changing situations with grace and composure?

_____6. Long and unkempt fingernails can be a liability when working on clients. Are you willing to keep your fingernails trimmed, neat, and without polish for the length of your program?

_____7. Many of the services that our students perform require a steady hand. Do you possess the manual dexterity necessary to perform services such as waxing and makeup application?

_____8. Many clients have allergies and sensitivities. Are you willing to change your routine by not smoking or wearing perfumes/colognes during your workday?

_____9. The field of aesthetics is constantly changing in response to new technology and techniques. Staying up to date on new treatments can make a real difference to an aesthetician's earning potential. Are you willing to continue your education in aesthetics past your graduation?

_____10. Aesthetics can be a very flexible career when it comes to making your own hours, however there will always be more clients wanting services on weekends and in the evenings. Are you able to work a varied schedule upon graduation?

_____11. We do everything we can when it comes to assisting our students in finding employment upon program completion, however we cannot guarantee that every student will find placement. Are you willing to take equal responsibility when it comes to your job search?

_____12. An aesthetician's income can vary widely. Are you willing to promote yourself and/or up-sell to your clients?
